

Rollomatic Group Appoints Group Applications Manager

Mundelein, October 2021. Rollomatic Inc., a subsidiary of Rollomatic Holding Switzerland, is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeremy David as the Group Applications Manager for both the Rollomatic and the Strausak brands within the North American market. Jeremy David is also a member of the Group Management Team.

Rollomatic and Strausak are world-leading builders of CNC tool & cutter and peel grinding machines as well as laser cutting machines based in Le Landeron and Biel, Switzerland. Their North American headquarters are in Mundelein, IL with a state-of-the-art machine demonstration and customer support facility.

“We selected Jeremy David for this role based on his extensive experience in tool grinding applications. His support-oriented customer approach and his skills in training both customers and peers will benefit the company and the applications team. Such qualities are key to expand the team of applications engineers and introduce the ever-evolving new technologies of the companies.” said Joe Kane, Group Chief Operating Officer, North America. “Jeremy will be instrumental in cultivating and developing a growing and young team, and elevate the group’s capabilities in test grinding and customer training.”

Prior to joining Rollomatic Inc USA in 2016, Jeremy spent many years at the Swiss parent company Rollomatic SA as a successful and skilled team member of the CNC applications engineers.

Since his relocation to Rollomatic Inc, Jeremy has demonstrated a high level of customer engagement, tool design knowledge and ability to program and operate complex 6-axis CNC grinding equipment. He has been a member of the “expert team” since over a year where his insight and experience are invaluable. Since March 2021, Jeremy has been the team leader - applications.

One of his specialty is to work with lead operators, help them to improve their grinding production and find specialized solutions for automated turnkey installations.

His support-oriented customer approach and his strategic mindset will benefit the customer base and such qualities are key to expanding the brand name and drive the ever-evolving new technologies of the companies.

Rollomatic provides outstanding service/support from its North American headquarters in Mundelein, IL, and satellite offices in CA, FL, IN, MA, TN, WI. For more information visit: www.RollomaticUSA.com or e-mail solutions@RollomaticUSA.com.
